

Financial Literacy Train the Advisor

Help people learn about their financial potential.

Join us for a day where we'll discuss financial tools and tips that you can quickly pass on to the people you serve. We'll also discuss how people can contact creditors, preserve retirement accounts and maintain good credit during difficult times.

Bemidji, Beltrami Electric	April 22, 2010
Badger, NW Community Action	May 4, 2010
Crookston, Mount St. Benedicts	May 5, 2010
Mahnomen, Shooting Star Casino	May 17, 2010

All classes are from 9:00 am-4:00 pm — cost $5.00 with lunch and materials included.

Contact Jane McKelvy at janem@nwmf.org or (218) 759-2057 to register. Sponsored by the Northwest Minnesota Foundation through the Compassion Capital Fund grant.

Presenter

Tina Eischens is Founder and Executive Director of the Human Achievement & Performance Academy. Prior to creating HAPA, Ms. Eischens was employed with a financial institution for 16 years and was a consumer and mortgage loan officer.