Do You Remember?

A Buddy Holly and rock n' roll tribute show by Lewy Ronken
Paul Bunyan Playhouse theater
Sat. Oct. 9, 2010
Watch for ticket information soon.

IN THE EARLY MORNING HOURS OF FEBRUARY 3, 1959 a small plane on its way to Fargo, ND crashed outside of Mason City, Iowa. Buddy Holly, The Big Bopper, Richie Valens and pilot Roger Peterson all died in that crash. The date has become known as "the day the music died."

Veteran entertainer Lewy Ronken has produced an unforgettable tribute show called "Do You Remember? ", featuring stories and music of that era and a tribute performance to Buddy Holly. The "Do You Remember?" show is scheduled for Oct. 9th at the Paul Bunyan Playhouse at 7:30 PM.

Don't miss this opportunity to hear one of the best Buddy Holly tribute artists in the country as he tells the story and plays tunes that will leave you wanting more . . .
